Appomattox Wins Crops Judging

Appomattox placed four individuals in the top ten high scorers in addition to being the high scoring team at the contest. Phillip Harris received the highest individual score and Clifton Carson was third high individual for the contest.

The Crops Judging Contest is an example of the FFA providing an opportunity for its members to put in practice what they have learned in Vocational Agriculture. Crops Judging, tests the students' ability to identify crop and weed seeds and to select the best crop seed from a series of samples.

Appomattox will participate in the State Crops Judging Contest to be held in Blacksburg during the week of June 17.
